Spitsbergen Airship Museum

Longyearbyen Lokalstyre, in its capacity as political administration of Longyearbyen, supports the proposed project of Spitsbergen Airship Museum. An attraction of this type will constitute an important contribution as a cultural offer to the local residents as well as to visitors.

Airship history in Svalbard is an exciting and relatively unknown topic that without doubt deserves more attention.

Longyearbyen Lokalstyre sees this project as a most welcome addition to what the existing museum in Longyearbyen has to offer. It seems likely and probable that there will be extensive collaboration between the two institutions.

It is fortunate that Longyearbyen Lokalstyre has recently passed a resolution to make an area development plan. A site, centrally placed in Longyearbyen, is at the disposal of Spitsbergen Airship Museum.

Longyearbyen Lokalstyre wishes to express our support for this project and look forward to cooperating further with you.

Best regards
